BESKRIVNING

In 1988 I published - in order to celebrate having survived half a century - a little book called Essays in Criminal Law, containing seven articles. The present sister volume, also containing seven articles, is meant as a celebration of my retirement, not only from my university position but also from criminal law writing. With regard to substance the text has been left in its original condition with a few exceptions. In Chapter 6 a few paragraphs of outdated parochial information have been deleted. In Chapters 4 and 5 there are brief postscripts.
